Additional comments/ Recommendations:

I think Stephanie did a great job taking care of my cats while I was gone. I really appreciated the effort she took to give equal attention to the both of them and to make sure that neither of them felt left out. I'm also grateful that she took the time to groom them a little since they were in the midst of shedding.

The daily reports were a huge help in making me feel at ease when being away from them for so long. To sometimes be able to hear them in the background while Stephanie was making her call brought me a lot joy and showed me just how happy they were being around her.

Overall, the entire process was very smooth and easy. I will definitely be returning to Flying Duchess and asking for Stephanie the next time I'm away. Thanks for being such a great sitter Stephanie! And thanks to Flying Duchess for being such a great service!

Thank you
